++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
A bright start, cloudier into the afternoon.

Today:
Patches of fog will be slow to clear this morning but away from these it will be a fine and bright start to the day. Clouding over into the afternoon with the chance of the odd shower in the west. Maximum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Tonight:
Patchy cloud overnight with a few showers lingering in the west. Temperatures dropping in the east where we see clearer skies. Minimum temperature -2 deg C (28 deg F).

Sunday:
Another mostly dry day tomorrow with patchy cloud, perhaps the odd spot of rain at first. Feeling less cold than of late. Maximum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Windy with rain pushing southeastwards on Monday, but some drier interludes. Rain persisting on Tuesday and into Wednesday, turning drier later.
